

Solar Rebate FAQs

1. Can I be guaranteed that I will get the full rebate off my taxes?
Only your tax professional is qualified to advise you on your unique tax and property situation.
2. Does GateCrafters.com or Web direct brands Inc. guarantee tax rebate?
No, GateCrafters.com is simply providing information published on the Internet in one convenient place. GateCrafters.com and Web direct brands Inc. simply compile information available from the Internet that is published on the manufacture's website and from the government sites regarding this rebate program.
3. Will my property qualify for this rebate?
Generally homeowners residences within the United States qualify for this tax credit, consult your tax professional to ensure that your unique situation will qualify.
4. What if there are changes to this program?
Government and IRS rebate programs are in a constant state of change. The most updated information about this solar credit rebate will be available on the IRS's website or from your tax professional.
5. What if there are changes to products (property) that are certified?
Product certification is the sole responsibility of the manufacturer's. It is our understanding that we, GateCrafters.com and you, our customer may rely on the manufacturer's certifications that are in effect at the time of purchase. In accordance with notice 2009-41, 2009-19 IRB 933 section 3.02 (7) dated 4/22/09 from the IRS "taxpayers may continue to rely on the certification for properties (products) purchased on or before the date on which the announcement for withdrawal is published (including in cases in which the property is not installed or the credit is not claimed before the announcement of the withdrawal is published)".
6. Are there any special rules regarding multi-family residences?
Yes, however no information has been compiled regarding the special rules regarding multi-family residences. Please contact your tax professional to determine what portion of this rebate, if any may apply.

7. Are there any special rules regarding commercial property?
Yes, however no information has been compiled regarding special rules regarding commercial property please consult your tax professional determine if any rebate is available for your commercial property.

8. What portion of the gate opening system is available for this rebate program?
GateCrafters.com and Web direct brands Inc. makes no representation as to what items are covered under this rebate program. The professional door dealer has published on 8/13/09 and opinion that states “the tax credit applies to the cost of solar power itself, the gate operator, the access control device, the safety device and installation costs of the solar gate operator system. The federal tax credit does not cover any additional cost of the gate itself as well as any work required to place a physical gate into the proper working order such as leveling the gate replacing hinges etc.”

9. Do noncertified accessories that are part of the gate operating system qualify for the rebate program?
Only accessories that are certified by the manufacturers are listed as related products to gate operating systems within this category. Uncertified accessories may become certified and may be available for a tax credit at a later date. GateCrafters.com and Web direct brands Inc. makes no representations as to what items may become available for the tax credit at a future date.

10. Is the tax credit available for the cost of labor?
A qualified yes, the code seems to make no demand that labor for installation be from a person whose normal course of business is installing gate operators. Please consult your tax professional to see if the cost of labor can be rebated and to determine if casual labor and/or handyman services would qualify for rebate under this program.

11. Do I need to install the system before claiming the tax rebate?
Yes, Rebates are for systems that are installed in the year that the claim is made.